J C GUILFORD DIES FROM EFFECTS OF CAR-BUNCKLE.

Mr. J. C. Guilford died yesterday at his home east of town.

Mr. Guilford had been suffering for some time with a carbunckle for some time with a carbonomic and when it was removed last week he stood the operation nice-ity and it was thought that he would recover up until a short time before his death, which oc-curred about 5 o'clock yesterday

Mr. Guilford was well known in this community, having moved to Dothan about 1887, and, after to notine about 1887, and, after living in town for about eleven years he moved to the family home, which is about a mile from town, where he had resided for the past ten years.

He leaves a wife and two children, Joe Guilford and a daughter, Mrs. Batchelor, who has resided at the home of her parents for some time, to mourn his loss. Mr. Guil-ford ws the only child of his par-ents, who died since they moved to Dotban.

Guilford had scores of friends in this county who will attend the funeral, which is to take place this afternoon from the home of the deceased, the Wood of the World having charge

NOT GIVING OUT ANY INFORMATION NOW.

AN ORDINANCE

When asked this morning whether he would accept Mr. J. R. Crawford's challenge to debate.

When asked this morning whether he would accept Mr. J. H. Crawford's challenge to debate the constitutional prohibition amendment question, Mr. Farmer replied: "I am not giving out any information now."

The friends of both sides hope that if he decides to give out any information about that joint debate, that he will give it out early enough to get a crowd out Satu day evening. The crowd will be waiting it it is informed.

Women, worn and tired from overwork, need a tonic. That feeling of weakness or helplessness will not leave you of itself. You should take Wine of Cardui, that effectual remedy for the ailments and weaknesses of women. Thousands of women have tried Cardui and write enthusiastically of the great benefit it has been to them. Try it—don't experiment 🖟 use this reliable, oft-tried medicine.

Mrs Rena Haie, of Pierce, Fla, tiled Cardui and afterward wrote. "I was a sufferer from all soils of female trouble, had pain in my side and legs, could not sleep, had shortness of breath I suffered for years, until my husband insisted on my trying in The first bottle gave me relief and now I am almost well."
